COMES ON FRIDAY.

Judge Jackson Will be Here Then to try Strike Cases

WHICH WILL BEGIN SATURDAY

Morning and Will Likely be Concluded Before the Close of the day. There are Several men now Under Arrest for Violating the Strike Injunction who Will be Tried—No Strike Developments.

The Intelligencer learned last night that United States District Judge John J. Jackson will come to Wheeling from Parkersburg next Friday night and on the following day he will open a special term of the United States court for the purpose of trying the cases of the several men and boys now under arrest here, and charged with violation of the Jackson Injunction restraining the public from interfering with the operation of the cars of the Wheeling Railway Company. It is believed the hearings of these men and boys will all be completed Saturday, and that, therefore, the Judge's stay in Wheeling will be quite limited.

There were no strike developments yesterday. It continues to be the practically unanimous opinion of the public that both sides should submit their differences to disinterested arbitration in order that the present situation, which is well nigh unbearable, may be brought to an end, but thus far no one has had the courage to propose such a method of settlement to company and men.

FEAST OF SHEBUOTH.

Observed by Wheeling Hebrews Yesterday—Eight Children Confirmed at the Synagogue—Reception in the Afternoon and Evening.

The feast of Shebuoth was observed by Wheeling Hebrews yesterday with services at the synagogue in the forenoon, and by functions of a social character later in the day. A class of eight boys was confirmed at the synagogue by Rabbi Harry Levi, with impressive ceremonies which attracted a large congregation. The confirmands were Masters Herbert Einshter, Henry Horkheimer, Samuel Reichenbaum, Irving Rosenbaum, Herbert Sonneborn, Marvin Sonneborn, Harry Steinhauser and John Schwalb.

The temple was decorated with flowers and the musical portion of the services was a feature. The opening prayer was made by John Schwalb, and the other members of the confirmation class also participated in the program. They made the customary floral offering in a body. The Torah was taken out by Herbert Sonneborn and a reading from it was given by Samuel Reichenbaum. Irving Rosenbaum read from the prophets, followed by prayer by Harry Steinhauser. Herbert Einshter spoke of the feast of Shebuoth, and Henry Horkheimer recited the ten commandments. Marvin Sonneborn rendered the closing prayer.

Rabbi Levi's sermon was an effective exposition of the tenets of the Jewish faith, his theme being "What is Judaism?" Assisting in the choir was Mr. Charles Zulauf, of Pittsburgh, formerly of this city.

Receptions yesterday afternoon and evening were given at the homes of the confirmands, all of which were largely attended. Mrs. Bernard Horkheimer received at her home on Fifteenth street, from 3 to 6 p. m.; Mrs. Moses Sonneborn, of Fourteenth street, from 7 to 11 p. m.; and Mrs. Henry Sonneborn, of South Front, from 3 to 6 p. m. The refreshments were served by Plate & Hane, the New York caterers.

PROHIBITION VILLAGE.

Pleasant Valley Council Refuses to Grant Liquor License.

At a regular meeting of the Pleasant Valley council last night, the application of Bader & Maurer for a coffee license for Selbert's garden, which they recently purchased, was turned down. The meeting was held in Mayor Acker's parlor, and voting against the license were the mayor, Councilmen Norton, Johnston, Gilchrist and Adams, while Councilman Selbert was the only member in the affirmative.

Messrs. Acker and Adams were the leading opponents, and the fight against the license was on the ground that the women of the village opposed it. The rejection was quite a disappointment to Messrs. Bader and Maurer, and instead of utilizing the place as a summer amusement resort, they will abandon the proposed improvements, and rent it out to parties, the first of which occurs June 8, under the auspices of St. John's Lutheran church.

Left For Detroit.

The local and over-the-river delegates to the annual convention of the Amalgamated Association left for Detroit yesterday morning, and will remain to the close of the week. This afternoon there will be an informal session, at which an address of welcome will be made by the mayor of Detroit, which will be responded to by Joseph Bishop, who was the first national president of the association after its organization 24 years ago, and at present a member of the Ohio state board of arbitration. This will be followed by an address by Gov. Hazen S. Pingree, of Michigan, to which President T. J. Shaffer, of the association, will respond.

Rivermen at Cincinnati are up in arms over the new ordinance introduced by the P. C. C. and St. L. railroad to occupy the wharf and switch cars during business hours.

Maj. Charles F. Powell, of Pittsburgh; Maj. W. H. Bixby, of Cincinnati, and Capt. George A. Zinn, of Louisville, have been appointed on the board that will hear objections in reference to the building of the bridge which is to span the Ohio river at Sewickley.

The present rise in the rivers, and the consequent rather large shipment of coal, both from Pittsburgh and the Kanawha, comes at a time when the river coal dealers will thoroughly appreciate it, says the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune. There probably never was a time at this season of the year, at least during the last 25 years, when there was such a small stock of coal afloat in the river as now. This is probably not over 1,000,000 bushels.

An Evansville, Ind., dispatch says: "Steamboats have been having considerable difficulty in the last two weeks getting routers. The negroes refuse to work for any sum, and as a consequence the boats have been greatly delayed. None of the boats that come into the local port have full crews, and sometimes a boat is compelled to remain in port all day, being unable to get help. The police have been appealed to, but they say it is out of the question for them to make the men work so long as they have money."

Pittsburgh River News.

PITTSBURGH, May 15.—Maj. W. H. Bixby, who has charge of the improvements of the Ohio river, has notified the rivermen that work will be commenced just as soon as possible to dredge the bar that has caused some trouble at Dam No. 3 on the Ohio river. The piling has not been removed. It was supposed, but the bar which is directly at the foot of the Trap, will be dredged three feet, which will give the boats a good navigable passage way. The usual formalities will have to be

What We Do Claim.

It would be folly to claim more than facts for our goods. We state exactly how they are made—their beauty, etc. We are exact that you may know exactly what you are invited to see. You know that to be so. You know it so well that you look for something better and cheaper from us than from anybody—advertisements cannot raise a store to popularity—but the goods, low prices and easy terms can. Therein we believe is the secret of immense trade.
